

FE Digital student project

Learners' expectations and experiences of learning in a digital environment

Open consultation event

Location: The Hatton, London, EC1N 8HN

Date: 25 March 2015

Time: 10:00

Agenda

Time	Activity
10:00	Arrival and Registration Time to look at publications and posters.
10:30	Welcome and introductions Sarah Knight, Senior Co-Design Manager, Student Experience, Jisc. Introducing the aims of the FE Digital Student project, the consultation process, and what we hope to get out of the day.
10:45	Meeting the needs of all learners Rhona Sharpe, Oxford Centre for Staff and Learning Development. Headline findings from the project. Activity: When and how are different learners challenged and supported?
11:45	Coffee Time to review findings from other groups.
12:00	Gathering learners' views Ellen Lessner, Researcher from the FE Digital Student project. Methods from the FE learner focus groups. Activity: Card sort.
12:45	What FE learners say Headline findings and recommendations from the FE learner focus groups. Activity: How do we respond to what learners say?
13:15	Lunch Time to review and reflect on outcomes of the morning.

Agenda

Time	Activity
14:00	Engaging learners in developing the digital environment. John Webber, Project Manager of Learning Technology Innovation, Sussex Downs College.
14:30	More tools for engaging learners Examples of tools and techniques to engage learners in conversations about digital projects and agendas: <ul style="list-style-type: none">» Learner profile and incoming student surveys» Using social media and other informal methods» Posters and postcards to stimulate staff and student discussions
15:15	Next steps <ul style="list-style-type: none">» What are the priorities for your college/provider?» What support would help from Jisc and its partners?» What one thing could your College do?
15:30	Close

Get involved

We will be using the hash tag #digitalstudent for these events and you can access, download, adapt and use all the resources from the workshop from digitalstudent.jiscinvolve.org