
Card Sort Activity

Jisc Skills Sector Digital Student Project

A. Access to technology:

Q. Which of these do you expect from your learning provider?

Pick 5 that are most important for you:

A. Access to social media like Skype, YouTube, Facebook, Twitter or Instagram

A. Fast wifi that is easy to connect to

A. A personal email account

A. Access to digital storage like Dropbox, Google Drive or OneDrive

A. A VLE (Virtual Learning Environment) with tutor contact, group forum, ways to store and submit work, CV, references, etc.

A. A device like a laptop, tablet or fixed computer to use on your own when needed

A. Access to a printer when needed

A. Access to a digital camera when needed

A. Access to class notes, handouts and recordings online

A. Aids like online diary, timetable, work experience information, rooming information, library catalogue

When you have chosen these, put them in order, with the most important at the top and least important at the bottom.

B. Useful Skills

Q. Which of these skills do you expect to learn on your course?

Pick 3 that are most important for you:

B. Basic ICT skills e.g. use of internet search, email, word processing, spreadsheets, etc.

B. How to use technology to cope with learning difficulties or disabilities

B. How to use systems like a library catalogue, VLE, and how to do things like submitting work online

B. Use of online networks to make connections and share ideas with other learners

B. Writing computer code – opportunities and/or training

When you have chosen these, put them in order, with the most important at the top and least important at the bottom.

C. Experiences

Q. Which of these experiences do you expect to have during your course?

Pick 4 that are most important for you:

C. Experience with technologies used in the workplace

C. Experience with presentation software like PowerPoint, Prezi, SlideShare, etc.

C. Experience in creating or contributing to a public website like a wiki or blog

C. Experience creating and editing with digital media like video, pictures or audio

C. Experience working with social media like Twitter or Facebook to help you learn

C. Experience taking part in online discussions

C. Experience working with others online; for example, jointly writing things or sharing files

When you have chosen these, put them in order, with the most important at the top and least important at the bottom.

D. Making good choices

Q. Which of these abilities do you expect to gain from your course?

Pick 3 that are most important for you:

D. Ability to choose the best technology for different tasks

D. Ability to judge how useful or true things are that you find on the internet

D. Understanding how to use the internet safely and ethically, including cyber-bullying, cheating, e-safety, protecting private information, sticking to a clear moral code, etc.)

D. Understanding the latest digital technologies (gadgets, media, apps)

D. Knowing how to present a positive personal identity or profile online

D. Ability to enter a workplace and feel confident with the technology used there

When you have chosen these, put them in order, with the most important at the top and least important at the bottom.